Commitment

The Host City undertakes to bear the residence costs of the two authors during the week of their stay in its territory. These expenses include:

- accommodation,
- catering (meal or per-diem),
- the provision of a workplace,
- the organization of a program of meetings, in particular with the community of artists in the creative field concerned and of visits,
- local transport,
- costs related to visits,
- the organization of discussion times with young audiences.

In order to ensure a good preparation of the program of the two authors, each host city will ensure a presentation of its creative field in the form it wishes (documentation, video, videoconference, etc.). This presentation should be sent in early January 2024.

I acknowledge the accuracy of the information and commitments presented above.
